

My name's Ivana. This is our story. At first life was great. I had a small restaurant and my husband, Boris, worked for a TV company. We had two children – a boy, Honza, and a girl, Lidia. We lived in a big house and we had a lot of money. We really had everything, but we weren't happy. We didn't spend much time together. Boris travelled a lot for his job. The children were at school all day and I was usually at the restaurant until midnight.

Then four years ago our son Honza had an accident. I was at the restaurant and Boris was in Africa for work, so a neighbour took Honza to the hospital. When I went to see him, he didn't say much, but I saw it in his eyes: 'Why weren't you and Dad there?' It was terrible.

That changed our lives. I sold the restaurant and Boris left his job. We sold our house, too, and we bought a big van. For the next two years, our family travelled round the world. We went to Europe, Asia, South America – lots of countries. It was great.

When we came back, we sold the van and we bought a house in a small town near the sea, and we live there now. We also bought a shop. We sell souvenirs, postcards, and things like that. We both work there now. Well, actually, Boris isn't working today. He's sailing.
